

Entry-Level Landscape Designer/Architect: I-3 Years' Experience
Doyle Herman Design Associates-Greenwich, CT

DHDA is an award-winning landscape design studio located in Greenwich, CT. Our passions lie in creating meaningful and memorable landscapes for residential clients. Our work is diverse and found throughout the U.S. and abroad. Project scopes can range from intimate urban rooftops to rural country farms, waterfront homes and estates. Our team is comprised of landscape designers and landscape architects with unique backgrounds and interests. Our tailored design process seeks to create solutions that are informed by architectural context and site history, while being ecologically sensitive. We engage with a team of affiliated professionals that includes architects, landscape contractors and environmental consultants to design and implement a shared vision. At Doyle Herman Design Associates, we celebrate the merger of living and built environments to insure a programmatic, detailed and above all, beautiful landscape.
